Country Summer All-Country Musicfest on June 13 and 14 in Santa Rosa
Features 11 Country Superstars

SANTA ROSA, Calif. -- Country music fans from across the nation -- Anchorage, Alaska to Ewa Beach, Hawaii, Kalamazoo, Michigan to Jacksonville, Florida -- will converge on Country Summer, Northern California's all-country music festival, June 13 and 14 at the Sonoma County Fairgrounds.

Hunter Hayes, the 22-year-old country-pop sensation who recently released his new "Storyline" album, headlines on June 13. The Friday lineup also includes Joe Nichols, David Nail, Craig Campbell and Dan + Shay.

Darius Rucker, triumphant on the country music scene after making a name for himself with Hootie and the Blowfish, headlines on June 14. The Saturday lineup also includes Eli Young Band, Sara Evans, Dustin Lynch, Trick Pony and Dylan Scott.

In addition to great country music on the Montgomery Village Stage, Country Summer features an array of Western-themed activities, fun fundraisers for non-profit organizations and delectable food and beverage concessions.

Sonoma County Fairgrounds, 1350 Bennett Valley Road, will be transformed into a country music mecca on the five-acre Carnival site. Gates open at 1 p.m. on June 13 and 11 a.m. on June 14.

Daily tickets start from $49 for general admission, $79 for reserved seats. To purchase tickets, visit www.countriesummer.com or call 800.514.3849 to order by phone. Connect with Country Summer at <https://www.facebook.com/countriesummer> and <https://twitter.com/CountrySummerCA>.
